

FALL 1897.

ESTABLISHED 1790.

SPRING 1898.

WHOLESALE TRADE LIST OF THE BLOODGOOD NURSERIES.

KEENE & FOULK,
FLUSHING, N. Y.

NOTICE TO CUSTOMERS.

Our location, nine miles from New York City, affords unsurpassed facilities for prompt and direct shipment.

Persons desiring to visit us from New York for inspection of stock will take the Thirty-fourth Street Ferry to Long Island City, thence by L. I. R. R. to Flushing (Murray Hill station). All such persons are cordially invited.

Our stock of Maple Trees is especially large and fine, and we desire correspondence with intending purchasers wanting such trees in carload lots, which we will pack free.

Particular attention is directed to our large 2 in. and up Norway, Silver, Sugar and Sycamore Maples, English Lindens and American Elms. Reasonable quotations when requested.

Stock will be well graded, well dug and carefully packed, for which a charge will be made sufficient to remunerate for cost of material and labor.

Terms cash, except by agreement otherwise.

FLUSHING, N. Y., August, 1897.
